Andrea has been the business owner who lost her passion, the disengaged employee and the collateral damage of the family who is waiting on the side-line for the crumbs of time and energy to be scattered, because work has to come first.

As an Author, Speaker and Business Soul Mentor, with over 30 years' experience in leadership in business, community and church, Andrea has gained great insights into what engages individuals and teams and how to take them to their highest future potential. Combining together her natural Business aptitude, Naturopathic qualifications and experience as a Pastor, Andrea has developed a holistic approach to business and success. Her work takes leaders and their teams on a soulful journey "Beyond the Why" where people connect to the purpose and passion that inspires unstoppable action and unleashes their Ultimate Impact on the world.
